Comments by CEO Karl-Johan Persson

“2013 ended strongly with well-received autumn collections, which increased our sales in the fourth quarter by 13 percent in local currencies. Profits after financial items increased by 11 percent to SEK 7.3 billion. This is a good result considering the substantial long-term investments that we are making in areas such as IT, online, new brands and broadening our product range.

Examples of these investments are our new fashion brand, & Other Stories, which has received a fantastic response as well as our extended H&M Sport range that was launched this January. The sports collections were designed together with Swedish Olympic athletes, with a focus on function, fit, design and comfort.

Another area where we are continuing to invest is online sales, which are becoming increasingly important. Our online sales continue to develop very well and hm.com, which is one of the world's most visited fashion websites, allows us to reach even more customers. In August we launched our online store in the US, with a very good response from customers. We are continuing our online expansion by opening more new online markets in 2014; France during spring/summer 2014 followed by an additional three large new online markets that are planned to open later in the year.

We continue to work intensively on sustainability in many different areas. H&M Conscious is the name given to our work towards a more sustainable future within fashion. Our vision is that H&M's entire operations should be managed in a way that is economically, socially and environmentally sustainable. We are therefore working daily to offer our customers increased sustainability in all our collections.

2013 was a year when we opened many new stores – on average, we opened more than one store each day. Today we have more than 3,100 stores in 53 countries and just over 116,000 employees. We are continuing to create more new jobs and we welcomed more than 12,000 new colleagues net during the year. Our strong expansion will continue in 2014, we plan to open around 375 new stores net and Australia and the Philippines will become new H&M countries. In addition to these countries, a couple of other new H&M markets are planned to open at the end of 2014.

The financial year 2014 has got off to a good start, with strong sales development in December and January. Although there are still macro-economic challenges in several of our markets, we are optimistic about 2014 which will be an exciting year with new countries and new opportunities. We have a strong belief in our offering and are convinced that we will strengthen our market position even further during the year.”

The operating profit amounted to SEK 22,168 m (21,754). This corresponds to an operating margin of 17.2 percent (18.0).

The Group's profit for the financial year after a tax rate of 23.9 percent (24.3) was SEK 17,152 m (16,867), which represents earnings per share of SEK 10.36 (10.19), an increase of 2 percent.

Return on shareholders' equity was 38.5 percent (38.4) and return on capital employed was 50.2 percent (50.3).

Comments on the full year

The year ended with a strong sales development. Even if several markets were characterised by the prevailing challenging macro-economic situation and multiple price activities and markdowns in many markets, H&M continued to grow with continued high profitability and increasing market share.

The Group's online sales, which developed well during the year, are a very important complement to the stores. A completely mobile-adapted H&M shop online was launched at the beginning of the year and H&M's online sales were launched in the US in August. During the year, preparations have been made for a global roll-out of more online-markets.

Many stores opened during 2013 - in total, a net addition of 356 new stores. At the end of the financial year the total number of stores amounted to 3,132 stores. Five new countries were added: Chile, Estonia, Lithuania and Serbia and via franchise, Indonesia. The store in Santiago de Chile, which opened in March, was the first H&M store in South America as well as the first H&M store south of the equator.

The long-term investments continued during the year in order to build an even stronger H&M and secure future expansion. One example of this is the new fashion brand & Other Stories that has been amazingly well-received since its launch in March. Building up a new brand takes time and involves major investments and costs, both initially and during roll-out.

COS is a successful example of a similar investment which, since its launch in 2007, has developed into an internationally well-established fashion brand. COS performed very well in 2013 and opened 21 new stores, corresponding to a store growth of more than 30 percent.

Examples of other long-term investments include the investments in IT and online and in the broadening of H&M's product range. Although this has meant increased costs for the Group, cost control remains good. Costs in comparable stores decreased compared to the previous year.

Profit for the year after financial items was affected by the major long-term investments mentioned above and by increased price markdowns in relation to sales compared to the previous year. In addition, compared to the previous year, the result was affected by negative currency translation effects of around SEK 600 m. Currency translation effects arise when converting local currencies into SEK, H&M's reporting currency.

Results for the fourth quarter

Gross profit for the Group for the fourth quarter increased by 11 percent and amounted to SEK 22,189 m (20,017). This corresponds to a gross margin of 60.8 percent (61.6).

Operating profit for the fourth quarter amounted to SEK 7,260 m (6,533). This corresponds to an operating margin of 19.9 percent (20.1).

Profit after financial items amounted to SEK 7,337 m (6,636).

Profit after tax was SEK 5,608 m (5,287), corresponding to SEK 3.39 (3.19) per share.

Comments on the fourth quarter

Strong sales in the fourth quarter resulted in further increased market share for the H&M Group. Sales increased by 13 percent in local currencies and by 3 percent in comparable units. Sales developed particularly well in Asia and Southern Europe. Online sales performed strongly in the fourth quarter.

Gross profit increased by 11 percent and amounted to SEK 22,189 m (20,017) corresponding to a gross margin of 60.8 percent (61.6). H&M's purchasing costs and gross margin are a result of many different factors, including raw material prices, cost inflation, capacity at suppliers, purchasing currencies and transportation costs. Overall, the market situation for these external factors is considered to have been largely neutral during the purchasing period for the fourth quarter compared to the corresponding purchasing period the previous year. The gross margin is affected by how well H&M handles these external factors and also by the decisions that H&M makes in line with its strategy to always have the best customer offering in each individual market – based on the combination of fashion, quality, price and sustainability.

The difference in the gross margin year-on-year is mainly due to currency exchange rate effects arising in connection with payments for the Group's flow of goods and to year-end effects. Markdowns in relation to sales increased by approximately 0.2 percentage points compared to the fourth quarter 2012.

Selling and administrative expenses in the quarter amounted to 14,929 (13,484), an increase of 11 percent. In local currencies the increase was also 11 percent. The cost increase compared to the fourth quarter 2012 is due to the expansion and to the long-term investments in for example IT, online sales and & Other Stories. These investments aim to further strengthen H&M's market position in the long term and to secure future expansion. Cost control in the Group remains good: costs in comparable stores decreased compared to the previous year, both in absolute terms and as a proportion of sales.

Profit after financial items increased by 11 percent and amounted to SEK 7,337 m (6,636). A contribution to H&M Incentive Program (HIP) reduced profit by SEK 31 m. As decided at the Annual General Meeting 2013, the contribution is based on 10 percent of the increase in the company's profit after tax, before any contribution to HIP, between two successive financial years.

The stock-in-trade increased by 10 percent compared to the same time the previous year and amounted to SEK 16,695 m (15,213). In local currencies the increase was also 10 percent. The increase is mainly due to the expansion. The stock-in-trade amounted to 13.0 percent (12.6) of sales excluding VAT and 25.4 percent (25.3) of total assets.

The composition of the stock-in-trade as of 30 November 2013 is deemed to be good even if the level is somewhat higher than planned which means that markdowns in the first quarter 2014 could end up at the same level in relation to sales as in the first quarter 2013.

Financial position and cash flow

Consolidated total assets as per 30 November 2013 amounted to SEK 65,676 m (60,173).

The current operations generated a positive cash flow of SEK 23,840 m (18,900). Cash flow was among other things affected by dividends of -15,723 (-15,723), investments in fixed assets of SEK -8,027 m (-6,827) and by changes in short-term investments with a duration of four to twelve months of SEK -311 m (3,963). The Group generated a cash flow of SEK -252 m (276) for the financial year. Liquid funds and short-term investments amounted to SEK 17,224 m (17,143).

The equity/assets ratio was 68.9 percent (72.8) and the share of risk-bearing capital was 73.0 percent (76.1).

Shareholders' equity apportioned on the outstanding 1,655,072,000 (1,655,072,000) shares as per 30 November 2013 was SEK 27.34 (26.49).

Expansion

H&M remains positive as regards future expansion and the Group's business opportunities.

H&M's growth target remains intact. The growth target is to increase the number of stores by 10-15 percent per year with continued high profitability, while at the same time increasing sales in comparable units.

For full-year 2014 a net addition of around 375 new stores is planned. Most new stores in 2014 are planned to open in China and the US. There are also still great opportunities for expansion in markets such as Russia, Germany, Italy and Poland.

Australia and the Philippines will become new H&M countries in 2014. In Melbourne, Australia the first H&M store will open in the first half year of 2014 and in the Philippines H&M will open its first store in Manila in autumn 2014. In addition to this, a couple of other new H&M markets are planned to open at the end of 2014. H&M will also open in South Africa in 2015.

The Group is continuing to work on the global roll-out of new H&M online markets. France during spring/summer 2014 followed by an additional three large new online markets that are planned to open later in the year.

Expansion continues for the Group's other brands COS, Monki, Weekday, Cheap Monday and & Other Stories. H&M Home will expand to approximately 15 new countries in 2014.

COS will open its first US store during 2014 in Soho, New York, and will also open online in the US in 2014. In addition, South Korea, Australia and Switzerland will become new markets for COS in 2014 with stores in Seoul, Melbourne and Geneva.

& Other Stories will open further stores in 2014 in both existing and new markets, including Belgium and the Netherlands, which will be new markets for & Other Stories stores. Austria and Ireland will also become new online markets for & Other Stories.

In January 2014 H&M launched H&M Sport - an updated and expanded sports concept for women, men and children. The range is significantly broader than previously and consists of sportswear and accessories in specially developed functional materials suited to various kinds of sporting activities. The concept is initially being launched in H&M's existing online markets as well as in selected H&M stores in 18 countries.

Tax

The Swedish corporate tax rate was reduced from 26.3 percent to 22 percent as of 1 January 2013. The H&M Group's final tax rate for the financial year 2012/2013 was 23.9 percent (24.3). The Group's tax rate depends on the results of its various companies and the corporate tax rates in each country. The H&M Group's tax rate is expected to be 23 - 24 percent for the financial year of 2013/2014.

Employees

The average number of employees in the Group, converted into full-time positions, was 81,099 (72,276), of which 6,868 (6,220) are employed in Sweden.

Parent company

The parent company's external sales amounted to SEK 35 m (30) in the financial year. Profit after financial items amounted to SEK 17,015 m (15,888). Investments in fixed assets amounted to SEK 161 m (125).

Comments on the current quarter

As previously communicated, sales including VAT increased by 10 percent in local currencies in December 2013 compared to the same month the previous year. Calendar adjusted sales increased just above 12 percent.

Sales in January 2014 are expected to increase by 15 percent in local currencies compared to the same month the previous year.

Due to the fact that the level of stock-in-trade as of 30 November 2013 is deemed to be somewhat higher than planned, markdowns in the first quarter 2014 could end up at the same level in relation to sales as in the first quarter 2013.

In 2014 the H&M Group will continue to publish interim reports in accordance with IAS 34, as previously, including for the first and third quarters.

Dividend policy and dividend proposal

H&M's financial goal is to enable the company to continue enjoying good growth and to be prepared to exploit business opportunities. It is essential that the expansion, as in the past, proceeds with continued high degree of financial strength and continued freedom of action. Based on this policy, the Board of Directors has decided that the total dividend should equal about half of the profit after tax. In addition, the Board may propose that any surplus liquidity is also distributed.

The Board of Directors has decided to propose a dividend of SEK 9.50 per share (9.50) to the 2014 Annual General Meeting corresponding to 92 percent (93) of the profit after tax.

The Board of Directors is of the opinion that the proposed distribution of earnings is justifiable taking into consideration the financial position and continued freedom of action of the Group and the parent company and observing the requirements that the nature and extent of the business, its risks and future expansion plans impose on the Group's and the parent company's equity and liquidity.

Annual General Meeting 2014

The Annual General Meeting 2014 will be held on Tuesday 29 April, at 3 p.m. in Victoriahallen, at the Stockholm International Fairs.
