Governance of respect for human rights

POLICY COMMITMENT

A1	What does the company say publicly about its commitment to respect human rights?	59, 64
A1.1	How has the public commitment been developed?	59, 64	In December 2012, H&M Group adopted its Human Rights Policy. This policy is based on the UNGPs as well as UDHRs - The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and The International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights as well as other international standards and guidelines. The policy is approved by H&M Group's CEO and throughout its development, stakeholders (both internal and external) were consulted and had the opportunity to give input to the content. In 2020, H&M Group finalised its revised Human Rights Policy , following a policy review initiated in 2016.

Defining the focus of reporting

B1 Statement of salient issues: State the salient human rights issues associated with the company's activities and business relationships during the reporting period.	59, 78	See also our Salient Human Rights Issues .
B2 Determination of salient issues: Describe how the salient human rights issues were determined, including any input from stakeholders.	15, 59	See also our Salient Human Rights Issues .
B3 Choice of focal geographies: If reporting on the salient human rights issues focuses on particular geographies, explain how that choice was made.
B4 Additional severe impacts: Identify any severe impacts on human rights that occurred or were still being addressed during the reporting period, but which fall outside of the salient human rights issues, and explain how they have been addressed.	6-7, 59, 65	Global events such as COVID-19 amplify human rights risks for already vulnerable groups. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, we paid increased attention to health and safety, social protection and wage payment, and focused on securing responsible purchasing practices in our supply chain.
